- The nearest railway station to Segway Unleashed is Godstone however from experience we recommend you travel into CATERHAM and get a taxi from outside the station.
- The railway company to GODSTONE/CATERHAM is SOUTHERN TRAINS
- SOUTHERN trains to Godstone/Caterham from London leave from: London Bridge, Clapham Junction and Victoria.
- We cannot collect you from the station; it's your responsibility to make your own way to and from the site.

For detailed rail network information we recommend you visit www.thetrainline.com and use their journey planner for detailed times, routes and prices to Caterham/Godstone from your starting location. Segway Unleashed is approximately a 20 minute walk from the Godstone station and a map can be seen on Goggle Maps and other internet sources. We have found the journey from Caterham works out cheaper all round, you get a regular train service and the taxi drivers charge a much fairer fare to travel the 4-5 miles from the station to the site, you can also get a taxi from Caterham as there is a cab rank out front, Godstone is very rural and Taxi drivers seemed less inclined to collect and drop you the 1-mile from the station to the site.
